SnapStore Payment Methods, Invoicing, and Billing Resolution Policy

Document ID: POL-SS-FIN-2026-V3 | Financial Operations & Compliance Division

1. Authorized Payment Methods and Encryption Security

SnapStore maintains strict financial compliance standards to protect customer monetary transactions.

Accepted Payment Options

- Credit and Debit Cards: Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover, and JCB.
- Digital Wallet Integrations: Apple Pay, Google Pay, and PayPal Express Checkout.
- Buy Now Pay Later (BNPL): Klarna, Afterpay, and Affirm (split orders into 4 bi-weekly interest-free installments).

Encryption and Security Standards

- All transactions are processed through Level 1 PCI-DSS compliant tokenized gateways with 256-bit TLS encryption.
- Card Verification Values (CVV) are never stored or logged on SnapStore internal systems.

2. Pre-Authorization Holds and Invoicing

Authorization vs Official Charge

- Placing an order triggers a temporary bank authorization hold for the order amount.
- Actual financial capture occurs exclusively when items physically dispatch from the distribution hub.
- For canceled orders, authorization holds release within 3 to 5 business days per the issuing bank.

Digital Tax Invoices

- Official tax invoices containing corporate tax numbers and itemized tax breakdowns are generated within 60 minutes of shipment.
- Invoices can be downloaded in PDF format directly from Account > Order History.

3. Gift Cards and Store Credit Terms

Digital Gift Card Guidelines

- Purchased SnapStore gift cards never expire and are free from maintenance or dormancy fees.
- Gift cards cannot be redeemed for physical cash, except where required by applicable state law.

Promotional Store Credits and Vouchers

- Goodwill customer compensation credits and promotional discount codes expire exactly 90 calendar days from issuance.

4. Price Matching and Post-Purchase Adjustments

7-Day Price Match Guarantee

- If a purchased product drops in price on SnapStore within 7 calendar days of delivery, customers may request a refund for the price difference.
- Excludes Black Friday, Cyber Monday, flash sales, clearance items, and third-party marketplace listings.

Chargeback and Dispute Policy

- Customers must contact SnapStore Support prior to initiating bank disputes. Unjustified chargebacks while holding merchandise result in permanent account suspension.
